The screenshot displays the 'House von Habsburg' interface in a medieval strategy game. At the top left, a portrait of Prince Albrecht the Wise is shown with his name and age (38). Below this, a family tree diagram illustrates the lineage of the house, with members represented by circular icons and some marked with skull icons. The tree shows a central line of descent with several branches. To the right of the tree, a box displays 'Total Members: 29' and 'Living Members: 29', with 'Prestige: 61' shown to the right. The interface also includes a 'Family' section with tabs for 'Vassals (10)' and 'Court (13)', and sub-sections for 'Parents', 'Grandparents', 'Children', and 'Siblings', each containing portraits of family members. A map of a region is visible in the background, and the game date '1 January, 1337' is shown in the top right corner.
